Macau Tower joining towers worldwide to show support for Japan

Macau (April 4, 2011) – Macau Tower, along with other iconic towers around the globe, will be showing its support towards the people of Japan after the devastating earthquake and tsunami, by shining their lights white and red—the colors of Japan—after sunset at approximately 6:30pm tonight.

In addition to Macau Tower, participating towers include:

- Empire State Building (New York, USA)
- CN Tower (Toronto, Canada)
- John Hancock Observatory (Chicago, Illinois, USA)
- Menara KL (Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia)
- North Tower (Seoul, Korea)
- Olympic Tower (Montreal, Quebec, Canada)
- Sky Tower (Auckland, New Zealand)
- Space Needle (Seattle, Washington)
- Spinnaker Tower (Portsmouth, Hampshire, United Kingdom)

“We are sending out our message of care and support on behalf of Macau. Humanity has always stood strong and united in times of crisis, and we are doing little as we can to let Japan know that they are not alone” remarked Rutger Verschuren, Chief Operating Officer - Hospitality Division, Shun Tak Holdings Limited.

The special illumination will remain on until after midnight.
